

Information About Your Privacy Rights

This notice is given to you because your health plan is Medicaid or Healthy and Well Kids in Iowa (hawk-i). The notice talks about your Personal Health Information, but it also includes the information for your dependent children under the health plan. This information does not affect eligibility for the health plan. Protected Health Information (PHI) means records that can be used to identify you or your children who are covered by the health plan, medical care, or payment for medical care. Your PHI is protected by state and federal laws.

Your Rights to Privacy

Federal law gives you rights about PHI. You have the right to:

- Receive notice of DHS policies and procedures used to protect your PHI.
- Ask that certain uses and disclosures of your PHI be restricted.
- Give a written request to inspect and copy your PHI.
- Give a written request that your PHI be changed.
- Ask for an accounting of disclosures by the health plan.
- Request communication of your PHI by alternative means or at an alternative address.
- Receive notice of unauthorized disclosure of your PHI.

Use and Disclosure of PHI

The Department of Human Services (DHS) is committed to keeping your PHI confidential and safe from being used by others without permission.

Only people who have both the need and legal right will be allowed to view your PHI. Your PHI will not be sold, used or shared for marketing or fundraising.

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY!

This notice tells you:

- How medical information about you may be used,
- When it can be shared with others,
- How you can get access to your information.

Este aviso está disponible en español a petición.

Your health plan, Medicaid or Healthy and Well Kids in Iowa (hawk-i), will ask for your written permission to release your PHI to others that are not given access to PHI under law. You may cancel your permission at any time by submitting your written instructions to the DHS Information Security and Privacy Officer.

As Required or Permitted By Law

To avoid a serious threat to health or safety: As required by law and standards of ethical conduct, we may release your PHI to the proper authorities if it is believed, in good faith, that it is necessary to prevent or minimize a serious and approaching threat to you or others' health or safety.

Treatment: Your PHI may be shared to coordinate health care. For example, your doctor may be notified about care you received in an emergency room.

Payment of medical bills: Medicaid or hawk-i may release PHI to you, your insurance company, or other third party payer, so that treatment and services provided by a medical provider may be billed and collected. Bills requesting payment may include PHI, which identifies you, your diagnosis, and any procedures or supplies used. Your PHI may be shared with a health care provider, individual or entity covered by the HIPAA privacy regulations for payment activities, such as Medicaid, Medicare or your personal health insurance carrier.

Abuse reporting: Any PHI indicating child or dependent adult abuse must be reported to authorities.

Business operations: For medical review, legal services, and auditing, include provider fraud. For example: PHI may be used to evaluate the quality of care given by the managed care program.

Health care oversight: Your PHI may be shared with agencies that monitor, investigate, inspect, discipline or license those who work in the health care system.

Specialized government functions: Your PHI may be used or shared for limited government benefits, such as public assistance benefits or benefits from the Social Security Administration.

Judicial and administrative proceedings: If you are involved in a lawsuit or other administrative proceeding, your PHI may be shared because of a court order requesting the release.

Public health: Your PHI may be shared for research purposes. Such research might try to find out whether a certain treatment is effective in curing an illness. Information that identifies you will always be removed.

As required by law: When required by law, the health plan must share PHI.

Law Enforcement: The facility may release your PHI for law enforcement purposes as required by law or in response to a court order, subpoena or warrant or other lawful process.

Responsibilities of the Health Plan

Federal law also imposes certain obligations and duties upon the health plan to safeguard your PHI. The health plan is required to:

- Provide you with this notice of the health plan's legal duties and the policies regarding the use and disclosure of your Protected Health Information (PHI).
- Maintain the privacy of your PHI in accordance with state and federal law.
- Respond to your request to restrict certain uses and disclosures of your PHI.
- Allow you to inspect and obtain a copy of your PHI during the regular business hours and according to this policy.

- Act on your request to change your PHI within 60 days, and notify you of any delay that would require the deadline to be extended by 30 days.
- Accommodate reasonable requests to communicate PHI by alternative means or methods.
- Abide by the terms of the privacy notice currently in effect.

For More Information or to Report a Problem

This notice has been provided to you as a summary of how the health plan, Medicaid or hawk-i, will use your PHI and your rights about your PHI. If you have any questions, or for more information regarding your PHI, please contact the Privacy Officer at the phone number below.

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint by contacting the Privacy Officer at the phone number listed below. You may also file a complaint with the Secretary of Health and Human Services. If you file a complaint, there will be no retaliation and you will continue to receive care and treatment.

Medicaid and hawk-i reserve the right to revise practices about Protected Health Information and to revise this notice. You may ask for a revised Notice of Privacy Practices by calling the Privacy Officer at the number below.

No person shall be discriminated against because of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, age, mental or physical disability, political belief or veteran status when applying for employment or when applying for or receiving benefits or services from Iowa.
